- 1 Spectacular 7/4 X 9 3/4 broadside/circular with portrait of Sam Houston. Upper half is Gen Houston's letter in response to San Jacinto Resolutions. "...if the independent Masses of the country deem my name important in connection with the Presidency, they have a right to use it...". Comments on party spirit, sectionalism, slavery agitation, dangers ahead. Lower part is Houston's announcement May 24 1860 in the Austin Intelligencer, to the people of San Jacinto and his fellow citizens of Texas..." consent to let my name go before the country as the Peoples Candidate for President...the Constitution and the Union embrace the principles by which I will be governed if elected...they comprehend the old Jackson National Democracy...I have no new principles to announce." Overall excellent condition, small 7/8 & 1/8 piece out of right edge affecting two words. An incredible rarity for one of the greatest heroes of the country. 6,750.
- 2 One of the very best pieces of Roosevelt china. 13" German pottery stein with very high relief scene of TR on an elephant, being attacked by a lion. Several other lions (including cubs) amidst the trees, another forms the handle, and a large male lion sits atop the lid. Great colors, perfect condition. Much rarer than the expensive Lenox toby jug. 2,650.
- 3 Extremely rare broadside, from the opening days of the Civil War, black woodblock on yellow paper 10 1/2 X 16 1/2. Jefferson City Missouri, May 16 1861 "Send us a good Company, well armed. STERLING PRICE, Commander in Chief". Recruits to enlist at Bolivar on the 18th, each must bring a blanket and a good rifle. This was shortly after Nathaniel Lyon's gallant and aggressive actions had prevented the St. Louis arsenal from falling into rebel hands. Couple insignificant flaws, excellent plus, very attractively presented in fine custom frame (not shown). 7,750.
- 4 One of the best Indian photos I've owned. Large albumen on original card mount 11 X 14 with full Grabbill imprint both on mount and in negative. "Indian Chiefs who counceled with Gen Miles and settled the Indian War... (each of the 10 identified in negative)." Generally superb condition, slight wear at left edge of mount hardly worth mentioning. A great Wounded Knee photo, Deadwood SD 1891. 3,750.
- 5 The best Masonic apron I've seen. Brilliant crimson red silk background with bold multicolor painted scene of Indian offering pipe to white man in formal coat and high hat. Teepee beneath trees at right. Wreath and Masonic devices in bright gold - scales, all seeing eye, clasped hands, sun, moon. White edging with deep green fringe. The photo might not come out well because of color separations, but its in near mint condition. Mounted on linen in custom plexiglass frame. Apron 17 X 18. 5,000.
- 6 Runaway slave broadside 9 1/2 X 12, Bladensburg, Prince George's Co, Maryland June 1861. Since the war had begun this girl might have made it to freedom since she was only 3 miles from Washington DC. Minor crease lower left corner, superb condition. 2,850.
- 7 Unique large charcoal on paper Memorial circa 1819, large monument and temple of fame near edge of water, ship in background, wife and children stand next to monument, eagle, drum, sword etc. on ground. "Sacred to the Memory of Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry of the United States Navy, who departed this life Aug 23 1819, Aged 34 Years," inscribed on side of monument. Excellent condition, 18 X 24, framed. A great piece of folk art! 3,250.
- 8 Outstanding American coin silver calling card case circa 1850's. Superbly hand engraved scene of two men with knives fighting a huge grizzly bear, while two dogs attack the upright bears hind quarters. In custom fitted silk lined leather case (similar to a daguerreotype case). Pristine condition, except hinge of leather is split. The best I've seen. 1,250.
- 9 4" carved wooden pipe, woman in mans coat and tie, hat inscribed "Votes for Women". One glass eye, other eye shut (winking). Detachable 6" stem at rear (not shown). Excellent, probably unique. 2,250.
- 10 Terrific sixth plate daguerreotype of a Wool merchant, his horsedrawn wagon heavily laden with filled burlap sacks and loose piles of sheepskins. To the rear is a brick building with open ventilation eave and hoist apparatus mounted on peak. Slightest very light wiping seen when tipped to light, nearly excellent. Crystal clear image. 3,250.
- 11 Always popular 5 1/2 copper lustre pitcher with portraits both sides on wide blue band "General Jackson - The Hero of New Orleans". Basically perfect condition - a couple of glazed over pinhead nicks in the rim and a few scattered small minor scratches. The last one of these sold (with a yellow band instead of blue) brought $5,963 in the Mastro auction. 4,750.
- 12 No doubt one of a kind. Heavy brass stand 10 X 8 X 1 1/2 holds four satin glass articles - like milk glass but polished inside with a frosted satin finish outside. To the rear is a floral decorated ring stand. At front is matching pomade jar (no lid). To sides are pair of 4" lotion or toilet water bottles with portraits Lincoln and Grant. Excellent condition, a thin line of wear at the lower edge of the portraits from contact with the brass rim. I was tempted to keep this in my own collection, but I really don't collect glass - just ceramics. 3,500.
- 13 A classic rarity among Lincoln photos, and this one has an interesting historical connection. Large format 9 X 7 albumen on 14 X 11 card mount. Ostendorf #62, taken by Gardner for Mathew Brady at Antietam Oct 3 1862. Lincoln at center in coat and high hat, flanked by group including Webb, McClellan, Fitz-John Porter, Humphreys and at the far right 22 year old Captain George Armstrong Custer, who had graduated from West Point just the year before. No photographers imprint, but the mat has a lengthy inked inscription identifying 10 of the 16 subjects "Key to this picture given by Brig Genl O.B. Willcox, Governor of the Soldiers Home". Willcox was a top Corps commander, Military Governor of Washington in the summer of 1865, and was awarded the Medal of Honor for 1st Bull Run. Photo also listed as #K8 in Katz' Custer in Photographs. Overall excellent condition, nice tone and contrast. Minor flaws to the mount only, including slightest of toning, couple light scratches, small broken corner lower left. 9,750.
- 14 Magnificent sixth plate dag of fireman ready for parade. Wearing overcoat with oilcloth cape across shoulder, heavy red/white knit collar/neckpiece, trumpet perched on shoulder and a superb parade hat with large eagle and name "COLUMBIA" across top. Old tags pinned to velvet read "John - third son of J R Schofield. John in fire man suit while volunteer fire man in service in 1850". Excellent condition, original seals. Few tiny specks on glass only. The best fireman dag I've had. In excellent union case. 8,500.
- 15 Classic Lincoln/Hamlin ferrotype in beautiful condition. 975.
- 16 Rare Civil War token, palmetto tree above cannon "No Submission to the North 1860". Reverse blank. Copper, lustrous partly red AU-unc. This was also used on several Breckinridge tokens. Fuld 514/519. 475.
- 17 A candidate for the best early political brooch I've owned. Jackson miniature portrait on ivory under glass in gold brooch pin. Reverse side engraved "Presented by G W Singer to W Keith". Mint. 5,250.
- 18 Silver badge in shape of 1 1/2 leaf "Crocker's Iowa Brigade - 11 13 15 16 - April 27 1862". T-bar pin reverse. 1,500.
- 19 (photo might not come out) Very rare litho pin, blue rim, red background, black portrait "Be Lucky With Joe Louis". 275.
- 20 Rare pair jugate ferrotype studs for Grant-Wilson and Greeley-Brown. The Grant has a couple teensy pinpricks under close magnification and the gray background is a bit mottled. The even more desirable Greeley is nearly perfect except for a very small chip in the blank area just above the portraits. Both items bold/bright. 2,750.
- 21 Classic Harding-Coolidge 7/8 jugate 1,800.
- 22 The tiniest ferrotype I've seen. 1" brass shell with eagle atop red/blue shield. Miniature ferro portrait Major Anderson (of Fort Sumter) is only 3/16 X 5/16, flanked by red/blue flags. 275.
- 23 Rare O'Hara watch dial porcelain enamel pin, Society of Cincinnati insignia "New Hampshire 1920". One of the best O'Hara's I've seen. 385.
- 24 Very rare 7/8 blk/wht cello "We Mourn the Loss of Our Leader - Eugene V Debs" 1926. 1,300.
- 25 Superb Manila Bay (Dewey) medal, orig T-bar clasp and blue/yellow ribbon. Profile Dewey "Gift of People of the US to Officers & Men of Asiatic Squadron". Reverse sailor sitting on cannon "In Memory of the Victory of Manila Bay". Panel at bottom impressed "USS Concord", rim impressed "Lieutenant Patrick W. Hourigan". Guaranteed genuine. Much rarer than the enlisted men's medal. 3,250.
- 26 (purple background might make the photo muddy - item is bold and bright) Very rare 1864 campaign silk "McClellan and Pendleton", black portrait on bright lavender silk. Near mint, few tiny light flyspecks in blank top area. McClellan ribbons are 20-30 times rarer than Lincoln. 3,650.
- 27 Something I haven't seen before. A 7/8" clothing button with daguerreotype portrait of man under glass. Perimeter tarnish. A novelty that was obviously special ordered. 175.
- 28 (photo won't be clear) Rare "Harrison & Reform" enameled glass "sulfide" brooch with previously unseen pale lavender background. Reverse pin.

- (Blank areas in photo on top edge are reflections from the faceted border). Choice condition. 1,400.
- 29 I've had quite a few of the suffrage kittens, but until a few months ago I never knew this item existed. 3 1/2 brown/whit glazed pottery dog, "Votes for Women" around base. Perfect 3,000.
- 29A I have in stock both the brown and the gray versions of the kitten. Call for prices if interested (much less than the dog).
- 30 When I started collecting political ceramics over 20 years ago, one of my early purchases was one of these teacups. I never expected to see another one. Magnificent Paris porcelain cup 3 1/4 diameter, 2 1/4 tall. Bright multicolor portrait "General Z Taylor" in uniform with plumed chapeau de bras. Gift leaves around base, handle in form of snake. Perfect 3,750.
- 31 Popular "End of Pain" token DeWitt/Sullivan 1796-1, obverse Thomas Paine hanging on gallows, reverse "The Wrongs of Man Jan 21 1793". A satire on Paines "Rights of Man" & his support for the French Revolution. The date was the execution of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette. Copper, toned XF. 225.

- 36 Scarce pair of 1888 jugates, portraits Harrison-Morton and Cleveland-Hendricks, decals on mother of pearl. Unusual spiral pinbacks that could be twisted into clothing and would not fall out. These usually are in terrible condition, but this pair is quite nice with only a tiny flake on Morton's neck. 350.
- 37 Henry Clay 1844-18, monument, Convention at Baltimore. Wht met, lustrous XF. 135.
- 38 Red/wht/blue enameled brass pin "Harrison Morton 1888". One I haven't seen before. 150.

- 40 Harrison with paper photos. George Washington has been placed over Morton, making this an 1889 Centennial Inauguration piece. Top bar missing, but it also had pin on back. Obviously the manufacturer was using up pieces left over from the campaign a few months earlier. 135.
- 41 Douglas SD1860-13, Popular Sovereignty, National Union. Brass AAU 85.
- 42 Scarce brass stud in form of log cabin with Benj Harrison bust in relief in circle. I don't see it listed in Hake or Sullivan. 185.

Silver cased watch enclosed in separate two sided hinged engraved silver outer case. Enamel is nice but watch needs minor repair - one of the hands is missing, as is the glass crystal. Any jeweler/watchmaker could do this for under $50. 1,350.
- 624 5" silver plated flask, relief scene "Remember the Maine" with the battleship on the open water. Excellent, needs polishing (but displays better with the tarnish). 250.

Portrait at top King James II (reigned 1685-88), crown, Union Jack, long banner with soldiers name "John McKinley", and on opposite side of the slot his identification "No 2083, 99th Regt." Flower/thistle at bottom. The 99th (Duke of Edinburgh's) Regiment was raised in 1824 and existed independently until 1881, and I would date this piece circa 1830's - 50's. McKinley was obviously of Scottish ancestry and apparently of Jacobite persuasion. Superb condition, really wonderful! 1,000.

All the white artwork (except the rim) has black line highlights to intensify it. General wear of course, but its in overall excellent condition for a painted canteen. 3,750.

Excellent condition with bold strong color, minor smudging of the blue into the off white background. Made by Germantown Print Works. In 27 years I've seen only two examples of this textile. The other was in a dull brown color and mediocre condition. This is outstanding! The example in Collins (#63) is terrible. 2,200.

Accompanied by CDV of Brig Gen Eugene Asa Carr, seated with his large dog in the chair next to him, head resting on the General's leg. Dated Aug 9 1865 from Alabama. The Carr CDV is a bit soiled with a couple teensy edge nicks. He was awarded the Medal of Honor for Pea Ridge, and went on to become one of the great western Indian fighters, using Cody as a scout. Generally excellent with a few spots & thin cracks in veneer at Washington. I had a similar table (with an additional portrait of Martha W) in my catalog about 12 years ago. - P Superb large oil on canvas 24 X 32 in fine gilt frame 33 X 41. For over a hundred years this painting has been known as "Long Jakes", but to the historian it's apparent that John C. Fremont was the model. This particular painting was on extended loan at the Munson-Williams-Procter Institute, Utica, NY, 1985-1989. It is one of six or seven versions of the same subject which have resided in both public and private collections since the mid 19th century. The "original" signed by Charles Deas was discovered in 1987 by Vose Galleries, and is now part of the incomparable Richard Manoogian Collection. Until 1987, the authorship of these famous paintings had never been known. It is not known whether the 6-7 unsigned versions, of which this is one, were by Deas or his students. I acquired it in 1989 when it left Utica, and it was the subject of numerous praises and comments when it was exhibited by me at the San Francisco Old West Show in July 1991. Excellent condition, superb color and composition, relined, a little extremely minor in-painting. I can provide further literature references, as well as catalog and invoice from the time of my acquiring the painting. 14,500.
- Q Very rare Presidential commission 1811 making John Williams a Captain in the Marine Corps, the only early USMC commission I've seen. 14 X 17 (sight) in nice 22 X 26 custom frame (not shown). The reason for the 4 semicircular tabs at top and bottom of the mat is unknown, but they might be covering some damage to the edges. Document as seen is bright, excellent, with intact seal and ribbon. Madison signature fine, but last two letters ON are weak. Accompanied by thick folio (60+ pgs) of information on Capt Williams and the Swamp Ambush at St Augustine in 1812, where he was mortally wounded. Also a complete set of 14 large prints by Colonel Charles Waterhouse, with accompanying text, including the St. Augustine incident. 4,250.

- U Very rare original window card 13½ X 21 for the classic D W Griffith film. Billed at the time as the greatest film spectacle ever, many people today have dismissed Birth of A Nation as just crude Ku Klux Klan propaganda. It was certainly not a coincidence that William Simmons initial recruitment for his reborn Klan was at the same time the movie was released. Repaired broken corners at upper left/lower right. 8-10 scattered small holes, bit of minor soiling upper left. Nice custom frame (not shown) makes it look terrific. A great piece of Americana! 875.

Where are we Tom?

In Massachusetts John,
at Rex Stark's home.

This is the nicest place we've been in 200 years - and all our old friends are here too.

I like the blonde girl !
